

University Hostel Handbook

1. Residence Eligibility

Hostel rooms are allocated to eligible students according to availability and the current allocation notice. Residents must complete allotment formalities and pay applicable charges.

2. Curfew and Entry

Residents should return by the published curfew. Late entry may require an approved arrangement. Repeated unauthorized late entry may be referred for disciplinary review.

3. Leave

Overnight absence should be recorded through the hostel leave procedure. Emergency absence should be reported to the warden as soon as practicable.

4. Visitors

Visitors must follow registration and visiting-hour procedures. Overnight stays require specific authorization from hostel administration.

5. Rooms

Residents must maintain reasonable cleanliness and report defects. Unauthorized structural changes and fixtures are prohibited.

6. Maintenance

Maintenance requests should be submitted through the designated channel. Residents should report safety hazards promptly.

7. Safety

Emergency exits must remain clear. Residents must follow fire-safety instructions and restrictions on electrical equipment.

8. Prohibited Conduct

Smoking, violence, harassment, prohibited substances, and serious property damage are not permitted in hostel premises.

9. Complaints

Residents may submit complaints to the warden or designated grievance mechanism. Good-faith complaints should be handled without retaliation.

10. Discipline

Reported violations may be referred to the appropriate authority. Interim steps may be taken where necessary to protect residents.

11. Fees

Hostel fees must be paid according to the official fee schedule. Late charges may apply where the schedule provides for them.

12. Room Change

Room changes require hostel administration approval and depend on availability. Students should not exchange rooms informally.

13. Checkout

Residents leaving the hostel permanently should complete the checkout procedure and return institutional property.

14. Communication

Residents must monitor official hostel notices for changes to timings, procedures, or safety requirements.
